

Indigenous Peoples Day August 9

At The Buffalo History Museum, 1 Museum Center Buffalo NY 14216 on Thursday Aug 9, 2018 2-8 pm

Celebrating 11 years of the UNDRIP's collective right to exist with prior, free, informed consent.

Native/Indigenous exhibits, FILMS with audience discussions, foods, singing, dancing, crafts and art

Candle light Interfaith Prayer Ceremony at dusk

"Native Me Too" with Michelle Shenandoah and Neil Powless, Oneidas

"Lake of Betrayal" with Caleb Abrams, Allegany Seneca

"The Doctrine of Discovery" with Pete Hill, Cayuga

Speakers from the WNYPeace Center, West Valley Coalition, Interfaith Climate Justice Community, and Nuclear Free Future

FREE ADMISSION

Co sponsored by the The Buffalo History Museum (tbmh), Native American Community Services (nacs), WNY Peace Center, Nekanehsakt-Friends of the EK WE HE WE, Interfaith Peace Network and the Network of Religious Communities.

United Nations (UN)
Holiday August 9
Is Indigenous Peoples Day

Indigenous Women's Initiatives

1272 Delaware Ave
Buffalo, NY 14209
Phone: 716 332 6988
Cell: 716 949 2619

NyaWehSkanoh@gmail.com

Visit our page on facebook