

Sarina Divan

Sarina is a confident senior at Williamsville East H.S. who has strong convictions and actively uses this prowess to make a difference in her community.

For example, the “Girl Up Club” that Sarina started at her school has a national goal to empower girls to take action to improve the lives of all young women of the world. She is one of 21 Teen Advisors selected worldwide to help spread this important message. A member of the Unity and Diversity group, Inter-High Advisory Council, and Class Treasurer, Sarina not only maintains and excels in a rigorous academic program, she also finds time to volunteer outside of school.

Sarina writes as a correspondent for the Buffalo News NeXt section and has written articles that address sensitive topics like Islamophobia with the hope of improving everyone’s perception of people that follow the Islamic Faith.

For her leadership and passion to make the world a safer more egalitarian place for young women and men, the NFJC is proud to present Sarina Divan with the Community Leader Youth Award.
