

Mikyle Hassanali

Mikyle is an intellectual senior who values social justice and peace and works to create an inclusive community both in his school and our region. As a founding member of the Muslim Student Association at Nichols School, he embodies a deep commitment to others, mirroring many principles of the NFJC.

Mikyle has received numerous academic awards including Gold and Bronz National French Exam Awards, Chinese Exam, and Arabic Recitation and Reading Awards which collectively showcase his passion for the languages. Throughout the community and the world, he has volunteered with Habitat for Humanity, worked with “Who is Hussain” an organization that promotes social justice and peace that has among other things, donated water for the people of Flint Michigan. Mikyle also had the opportunity to help build a well in his home country of Tanzania.

For his commitment to social justice and the betterment of the world around him, the NFJC is proud to present Mikyle Hassanali with the Community Leader Youth Award.
