

Community Foundation Norman Goldfarb Youth Award

Charles Morrison

A senior at St. Joseph's Collegiate High School and a Buffalo Prep Scholar, Charles inspires and uplifts all that have the pleasure of working and interacting with him. A strong, firm leader, he is a kind-hearted and compassionate inspiration to us all. He understands the importance of selfless leadership and strives to help others. Charles credits his strong identity to his participation in the Youth Leadership Council which taught him he can make a difference in society. A volunteer with the Urban Food Pantry, Charles also serves on the Police Advisory Board and is a Police Athletic Volunteer. He is an accomplished wrestler who is ranked in the top 5 in WNY. In addition he has received First Honors Scholars and the Scholar of the Year award.

Charles has put forth a great effort into training and athletics. In addition, he has undertaken various internships all while working various part-time jobs and maintaining high academic grades.

Looking ahead, as Charles describes it, he plans to continue to devote his life to helping others make change and being the voice for those who have lost hope.

For his personal fortitude and continuous commitment to community and teamwork, we are proud to present on behalf of the Community Foundation of Greater Buffalo, the Norman Goldfarb Youth Award to Charles Morrison.
