Honoring Dr. Katherine Conway-Turner, President, Buffalo State College
Recipient, The Sophia Veffer Upstander Award

Remarks by Leslie Zemsky, Buffalo State College Council

*“Educators will be the voice of the Holocaust Survivors and teach about present day genocides and human rights issues to present and future generations of students.”
- Sophia Veffler*

The Sophia Veffler Award is given to an individual who passionately provides educational and leadership opportunities to young people based on the mission of the Holocaust Resource Center: Teach the Lessons of the Holocaust, Honor the Survivors and Victims and Promote Social Justice, Civic Responsibility and Human Rights.

Award Recipient: Dr. Katherine S. Conway-Turner, Ph.D

Dr. Conway-Turner is the ninth president of Buffalo State College, SUNY's largest and only comprehensive college located in an urban setting. She oversees and manages more than 1,700 faculty, staff, and administrators who provide more than 200 academic degree and certificate programs to 8,500 undergraduate and 1,000 graduate students each year. President Conway-Turner's vision for Buffalo State is to become "Buffalo's College" through engagement, excellence, and social responsibility.

Sophia Veffler is a founder of Holocaust Resource Center and The Anne Frank Project at Buffalo State College. Mrs. Veffler is a Holocaust Survivor from Amsterdam, Holland and highly sought after member of the HRC Speakers Bureau. She is dedicated to educating "students about the lessons of the Holocaust and global human rights issues."
