

2019 Community Leader Legal Award

Jodyann Galvin, Esq.

Jodyann is a partner at Hodgson Russ, LLP and the chair of its Committee on Attorney Recruiting, Development and Diversity. She specializes in resolving business disputes, advises young attorneys, lectures on civil practice, and teaches at the UB Law School.

In addition to her practice, Jodyann serves on the Board of Directors for Buffalo Prep and she volunteers with UB Law School's Discover Law Summer Program, aimed at minority and first generation undergraduate students. She is a founding member and volunteer recruiter with the Pro Se Assistance Program (PSAP) in the Western District of New York. PSAP as it is known assists individuals who are not represented by counsel with their civil matters in federal court.

An active volunteer in the community, Jodyann works with students at St. Luke's Mission of Mercy. She works with Habitat for Humanity and is a longtime supporter of the East Aurora Boys & Girls Club.

For her work to build inclusion in the legal field and her commitment to serving those in need, the NFJC proudly presents Jodyann Galvin, Esq. with the 2019 Community Leader Legal Award.

"...a just community begins with me!"

360 Delaware Avenue Suite 106
Buffalo, NY 14202
716.853.9596
www.nfjcwny.org