

2018 Community Leader Legal Award

Fredrick G. Attea, Esq.

Fred is an attorney with Phillips Lytle, LLC, specializing in business law. A noted author and lecturer, Fred has a long record of using his legal and professional expertise to support the people and organizations of WNY.

His leadership in the world of Not-For-Profit law and enterprise is well known. Fred has written several articles on changes to NYS legal code for organizations, and has worked diligently to ensure that both his clients and the non-profits he serves are fully compliant with those often rigorous changes. Fred is past Board chair of Artpark and vice chair of the Buffalo Philharmonic. He is currently on the Boards of Kavinoky Theater, World Trade Center Buffalo Niagara, and Read to Succeed. In addition, he is on the boards of Hauptman-Woodward and the Cal-Span University at Buffalo Research Center. Fred is a devout Catholic, and his service to the church includes the Bishop's Lay Advisory Committee, The Foundation of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Buffalo, and the board of Nativity Miguel Middle School.

For his commitment to WNY and his donation of his extensive legal expertise to the many organizations that serve its people, the NFJC is proud to recognize Frederick G. Attea, Esq. with the 2018 Community Leader Legal Award.

"...a just community begins with me!"

360 Delaware Avenue Suite 106
Buffalo, NY 14202
716.853.9596
www.nfjcwny.org