

Shaun Kohli

Shaun, a Science Olympiad who has maintained and achieved National Academic recognition, is a senior at Williamsville East High School. Throughout his High School years, he has participated in Mock Trial Tournaments and has been a MasterMinds Team Captain who maintains a 97.5 school average.

Described as a soft spoken, but strong leader who many of his peers look up to, he has volunteered with Hands Around the World which assists in hurricane relief efforts and Doctors without Borders. He is also part of Future Business Leaders of America and the Link Crew. Shaun is a valued team member for many NFJC programs. Recently, he participated as an NFJC Sheriff Youth Camp Facilitator, working to bridge divides between deputies and students. In school, his creative side has shown through with the production of promotional videos and t-shirts for many activities, as well as being a member of both the Philharmonic Orchestra and Chorale.

For his commitment and dedication to leadership and the pursuit of social justice, the NFJC is proud to present Shaun Kohli with the Community Leader Youth Award.
