

2018 Community Leader Legal Award

Sujata Yalamanchili, Esq.

Sujata is a partner with Hodgson Russ and is leader of the firm's Real Estate, Finance, and Bankruptcy practice area. She provides clients with business-focused advice to help them achieve their goals. She specializes in developing contract arrangements to minority and women owned businesses. Committed to making the legal profession more inclusive, Sujata is former chair of the firm's committee for Attorney Recruitment, Development, and Diversity.

Sujata came to Hodgson Russ in 1999 after a successful career in financial analysis. She has been recognized for her leadership in her field and for her dedication and compassion when working with her clients. She actively seeks to grow minority representation in the legal field and works to provide guidance and ensure financial assistance to those interested in pursuing a legal career. Sujata, an active member of the Women's Group, is also involved with a number of local non-profit organizations including serving on the boards of Summit Educational Services and the WNY Women's Foundation and as a trustee of the Theodore Roosevelt Inaugural Site.

For her dedication to serving all clients with dignity and her work to inspire others to achieve, the NFJC is proud to recognize Sujata Yalamanchili with the 2018 Community Leader Legal Award.

"...a just community begins with me!"

360 Delaware Avenue Suite 106
Buffalo, NY 14202
716.853.9596
www.nfjcwny.org