

Summer Cerbone

Summer is a senior and member of the Student Council at City Honors High School. She is treasurer for the Student Council, and through this position has helped raise money for various community enrichment activities such as the annual food and clothing drive supporting a local church.

While still maintaining a high GPA in school, she is also a Swim Captain, AP Scholar, and a top 5 Model UN member. She has done volunteer work with Peace of the City Ministries helping students with reading and homework, volunteered with Shakespeare in the Park, Pedal for Peace, Relay for Life, and so many other community activities and organizations.

To meet Summer is to appreciate her inherent kindness and good nature. She cares for others and her community and is a strong, articulate advocate for the things she believes in. Her commitment to inclusion and diversity is apparent in all she endeavors. As such the NFJC is proud to present Summer Cerbone with the Community Leader Youth Award.
