The 2021 NFJC Re-Envisioned Community Heroes Awards will recognize individuals (adult or youth), corporations and institutions in Western New York that have made an impact on our community during these challenging times. This year's Community Heroes will be selected based upon the impact they have had on the Western New York in the face of those challenges, including the pandemic, recent civil unrest, and continuing social and economic disparities, as well as how their contributions reflect the mission of the National Federation for Just Communities of WNY. The National Federation for Just Communities of WNY is dedicated to overcoming racism, bias and discrimination by building a more just and inclusive community through education and community engagement.
