Jamal Harris Jr.

Jamal is a junior at Cleveland Hill High School who is a kind and serious student who has his sights set on becoming a sports journalist. An accomplished athlete himself, Jamal is on both the Track and Swim Teams at school. He serves as a freshman mentor and role model for his fellow classmates, as well as a mentor in the Big Brothers/ Big Sisters program.

Jamal's school service also includes being a member of the Student Council and a regular participant in the STEP program through UB. He consistently works hard, both in and out of school, and is currently on the honor roll.

In addition, Jamal has won the "Do the Right Thing" award through the Cheektowaga Police Dept., and the Counselors Award for Excellence in the STEP Program. Jamal has excellent leadership qualities and will no doubt continue to be a positive role model for those he meets.

Because of his respectful, and strong leadership capabilities that exude the highest expectations for himself and those around him, the NFJC of WNY is proud to present Jamal Harris with the 2020 Community Leader Youth Award.
