

2020 Community Leader Youth Award

Jeremiah Chapman

To say that Jeremiah is a sports enthusiast is an understatement. To quote him, “Anything I do, I love to involve sports in some type of way”. An accomplished athlete, Jeremiah, a Buffalo Prep Scholar and a senior at City Honors High School, exceeds in everything he does. A member of the varsity Basketball, Track and Field, and Cross-Country teams, he puts his heart and soul into everything he endeavors. As an Assistant Coach for Summer Youth Basketball, he has used his athleticism to inspire, connect, and mentor younger students. But his excellence doesn’t stop on the field. In addition, Jeremiah has volunteered with the Friends of the Night People. In school, he is enrolled in the full International Baccalaureate Diploma program and has taken advanced placement courses, maintaining a 3.9 GPA or higher. Jeremiah hopes to become a surgeon after studying biochemistry so look out Cornell, Dartmouth, Harvard; he has his sights set on you and we’re sure with his work ethic and determination he’ll do well!

For his well-rounded approach to infuse sports as a means to bridge divides, the NFJC is proud to present Jeremiah Chapman with the 2020 Community Leader Youth Award.
