

THE MICHIGAN STREET AFRICAN AMERICAN HERITAGE CORRIDOR: THE CONNECTOR TO THE PAST,
PRESENT & FUTURE

The Michigan Street African American Heritage Corridor is a nationally and internationally recognized Buffalo neighborhood that serves as the focal point of residents' and visitors' experience for learning about Buffalo's rich African American history through its vibrant communities, shops, restaurants, unique structures, historical markers, people & institutions.

Terry Alford, Executive Director, will inspire and invigorate us as he takes us through The Heritage Corridor, integrating the African American cultural significance & impact on history, connecting the past, present and future together.
